

Restaurant Review by Peter Wells

Bull & Bear - Benitachell

The inappropriately named restaurant is above what used to be the Buddha Bar opposite Mas y Mas just outside the centre of Benitachell. Don't expect a dart board, pool table or a one armed bandit. Instead you will find a very comfortable Spanish style restaurant, well decorated and full of charm.

The new British owners offer a lunchtime menu of the day and an A La Carte menu. Our group of 20 were offered the lunchtime menu in the evening which comprised choice of 2 dishes for each course plus unlimited wine, all for the modest sum of €11.95.

Despite the size of our party the service was acceptable and the food quality, presentation and portion sizes were very good.

No bread & ali oli was served with the meal and coffee, not surprisingly, was at extra cost. The whole building (including 5 hotel rooms) are no smoking.

The A La Carte menu was fairly limited and seemed good value.

Conclusion – A safe choice, nice food if not overly exciting.
