

Restaurant Review by Peter Wells

Happy Garden - Moraira

Located about 1Km from Moraira on the coast road to Calpe on the right just before the “new” roundabout near the Algas bar. A small party of six visited for dinner in early January.

The restaurant is quite large with seating inside and outside, there is a no-smoking section inside. The décor was fairly predictable with bunches of plastic grapes hanging from the ceiling, but very pleasant. There was ample off street parking.

The restaurant offers both A La Carte and menu del dia menus, the latter offering great value.

The menu del dia consists of a choice of soups or spring roll followed by a choice of meat or prawn skewers or chicken sate as a second course. The third course is a choice of some 18 different Chinese and Thai dishes – the price you pay for the whole meal is governed by the choice of main course, but none is more than 9€ including IVA. This also includes rice or noodles plus ice cream or coffee plus half a bottle of very drinkable house wine per person (or a soft drink).

The ambiance and location were very good and it was hard to find fault.

Conclusion – Great value for money, good portions, lovely food and friendly service
