Saturday Coffee Mornings with a difference!

Hola a todos!

During the summer we have been meeting outside the Gran Ave Café in Moraira but on 1st October we will move to our normal venue – El Andaluz (Ctr. Moraira/Benitachell on the left after the roundabout). We meet in the conservatory on the left – there is no charge – just buy a drink at the bar. Same time 11.00 – 12.30 every Saturday morning.

As in previous years we will sit at small tables (max 4 people per table) with folk of a similar ability. We label the tables Ponderers, Chatterers and Debaters (different ability groups) and you can start at whatever level you think you are at. We try to move places half way through so we aren't talking to the same people all the time. It is all very informal.

There are a couple of Spanish people who come on a fairly regular basis. They help us a lot but they are also wanting to improve their English so, if you are sitting on their tables, it is only fair to spend a little of the time speaking English with them.

It is a sociable and informal morning and hopefully we are learning too.

Hasta luego!

Sheila
