

Restaurant Review by Peter Wells

Beni Asia - Benitachell

This is a Chinese restaurant in Benitatchell, situated near the traffic lights on the way up to Cumbre. There is ample on street parking outside.

The restaurant was quite busy on the night in question and our group of nine ordered the set menu which included a selection of dishes, half a bottle of house wine and a sweet.

This was a most dismal dining experience; the service was appalling, the food very average and several of our party were still hungry as a result of the meagre portions.

There was absolutely nothing whatsoever to commend this restaurant.

Cost per person worked out at a diabolical 11€

Conclusion – Stay home or go elsewhere. It is so easy to find far better Chinese food and better value almost anywhere else in the area!
