

Restaurant Review by Bob Cope

El Caserio - Moraira

There was a serious leak in Heavens plumbing at the time of our arrival at El Caserio Restaurant on the outskirts of Moraira for the first dining out event of the Barcelona group under the auspices of David & Eileen Haxon. However, this did not dampen our evening in any way.

David & Eileen introduced themselves & thanked members for coming of which there were approximately 30. We were offered a varied menu, which at 18:50 euros, for three courses including half a bottle of wine, was reasonably priced. One or two members were not over impressed with their Gratin of Mussels or Seafood Crepe starters, and which had to be sent back to the kitchen, but overall there was a general expression of satisfaction with the food. Certainly the staff were friendly and efficient and the company was, as usual, excellent.

Thanks must go to David & Eileen for their organisation.
