

Thirty three people from the Dining Out Group took over Ca Pepe restaurant on Tuesday 7th June. We had a pre-ordered set menu for 19€ which is not usually available in the evenings, but there is a menu del dia at lunchtime for 15€ A la carte is much more. The menu choices are unusual, imaginative and beautifully cooked and presented. Be warned, this is not the place for you if you need a filling mound of potatoes, but if you are open to appreciate subtle flavours and unusual combinations it is well worth a visit. On previous visits since the new owners took over there has been some criticism, mainly over portion sizes, but on this occasion they got pretty well everything right and they had a big crowd of very happy and satisfied diners singing their praise.

Overall rating

Food	9.5
Atmosphere	9
Wine	9
Service	9

Ca Pepe is situated on C. Haya, the road which goes towards the Swiss Hotel, with its own car park and plenty of road parking.

Website www.ca-pepe.com

Jan Adams